

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

THE EXCELLENT, THE EXCELLENT RAJ
K. PATEL, from all capacities,

Plaintiff

v.

THE UNITED STATES, ET AL.

Defendants

No. 2:21-cv-16029-SDW-CLW

Dated: September 15, 2021

SECOND AMENDMENTS TO COMPLAINT

I, Raj K. Patel (pro se), respectfully inform this District Court for District of New Jersey for leave to add and revise into the complaint the following:

PRO SE COMPLAINT

...for this battery/assault/torture/terrorism/genocide/civil rights violation/conspiracy through a bio-stress weapon (body control too, as it can make you drive a car) to end and to restore the privileges and/or immunities...

Beyond these aforementioned statutory and constitutional matters, my First Amendment right to Free Exercise of Religion (i.e. gains for forward human evolution, including physical exercising; my religion tells me to workout; brain's religious-side was prevented from being used, see 18 U.S.C. § 247(a)(2) and infra (Framer's comment on the mind))¹, Academic Freedom,...

1. "The "exercise of religion" involves "not only belief and profession but the performance of (or abstention from) physical acts" that are "engaged in for religious reasons." Burwell v. Hobby Lobby Stores, Inc., 134 S. Ct. 2751, 2270 quoting Employment Division v. Smith, 494 U.S. 872, 877 (1990). "It means, too, the right to express those beliefs and to establish one's religious (or nonreligious) self-definition in the political, civic, and economic life of our larger community." Hobby Lobby, 134 S. Ct. 2751, 2285 (Kennedy, J., concurring).

SUBJECT-MATTER JURISDICTION

[5] Federal courts may review decisions of a de jure or a de facto corporation² to determine whether its decisions cross the “line” and is “unreasonable.” Hobby Lobby, 134 S. Ct. at 2278.

[6] “The district courts shall have original jurisdiction of any civil action authorized by law to be commenced by any person: To redress the deprivation, under color of any State law, statute,...of any right, privilege or immunity secured by the Constitution of the United States or by any Act of Congress providing for equal rights of citizens or of all persons within the jurisdiction of the United States...To recover damages or to secure equitable or other relief under any Act of Congress providing for the protection of civil rights” 28 U.S.C. § 1343(a)(3) & see generally 28 U.S.C. § 1343.

[7] “In any civil action of which the district courts have original jurisdiction, the district courts shall have supplemental jurisdiction over all other claims that are so related to claims in

2. “A corporation is simply a form of organization used by human beings to achieve desired ends.” Hobby Lobby, 134 S. Ct. at 2768. “As Chief Justice Marshall observed nearly two centuries ago, a corporation is “an artificial being, invisible, intangible, and existing only in contemplation of law.” Hobby Lobby, 134 S. Ct. 2751, 2294 (Ginsburg, J., dissenting) (internal citations omitted). “Corporations, Justice Stevens more recently reminded, “have no consciences, no beliefs, no feelings, no thoughts, no desires.” Citizens United v. Federal Election Comm’n, 558 U. S. 310, 466 (2010) (opinion concurring in part and dissenting in part). Hobby Lobby, 134 S. Ct. 2751, 2294 (Ginsburg, J., dissenting). “An established body of law specifies the rights and obligations of the people (including shareholders, officers, and employees) [(board, alumni, faculty, students, administration, and society)] who are associated with a corporation in one way or another. When rights, whether constitutional or statutory, are extended to corporations, the purpose is to protect the rights of these [corporate] people.” Hobby Lobby, 134 S. Ct. at 2768. Amongst the types of corporations include general business corporations, general local government corporations, and general utilities corporations, including schools and universities, which “excellent” corporations from the Common Law, and religious. U.S. const, art. VI, § 1 and Grievance 21, Decl. of Independence (1776). “Recognition of the discrete characters of “ecclesiastical and lay” corporations dates back to Blackstone, see 1 W. Blackstone, Commentaries on the Laws of England 458 (1765), and...before the enactment of the Internal Revenue Code.” Hobby Lobby, 134 S. Ct. at 2296 (Ginsburg, J., dissenting). “But it is important to keep in mind that the purpose of this fiction is to provide protection for human beings.” Hobby Lobby, 134 S. Ct. at 2768. Nonetheless, where power lies inside a corporation, per corporate sovereignty, is an intranatal matter, permitted through the one right the Founders and Farmers said all persons possess – the right to debate. See infra.

the action within such original jurisdiction that they form part of the same case or controversy under Article III of the United States Constitution.” 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND COMPLAINT

While seeking re-admissions at the University of Notre Dame du Lac Law School, I was asked to disclose any pending civil and expunged cases, and I did disclose the civil cases. I believe that the University of Notre Dame unlawfully discriminated against me by denying me re-admissions because of my expunged case, which I received in December 2017. See generally I.C. 35-38-9-10. Again, I was on a voluntary separation of leave in good standing and medical professionals cleared me for readmissions in January 2018 for re-admissions in Spring 2018 and Fall 2018 and subsequent cycles, per University of Notre Dame’s University Counseling Center’s law student re-admissions process. I.C. 35-38-9-10(b)(4) & (6) (“It is unlawful discrimination for any person to...refuse to admit...; or otherwise discriminate against; any person because of a conviction or arrest record expunged or sealed under this chapter.”). I received supportive remarks for readmissions as well. The de facto corporation, University of Notre Dame Law School, made an unlawful discriminatory decision to not to re-admit me. Id. and 18 U.S.C. § 245(b)(2)(B) and 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Besides, the University of Notre Dame du Lac does not require medical screening for first-year law school admissions or to exit the university on a voluntary separation of leave in good standing. Hobby Lobby, 134 S. Ct. at 2278. And, they unlawfully discriminated against me for using my political power/privilege/right secured to me as the “The Excellent” and “The Excellent” under the United States Constitution. 18 U.S.C. §§ 241 et seq.
